Mother-The First Teacher of a child- Dr. Govind Sharma

28, Jan 2015:- A tribute offered to the great freedom fighter of North-East, Padmashree Ranima Gaidiunlu. The program was presided by eminent female personalities Smt. Lupamudra Choudhury - Principal Babyland English High School , Dr. Geeta Saha - former Vice Principal Rabindrasadan Girls' College , Dr. Sharmistha Khajanchi – Principal Rabindrasadan Girls' College and All India President of Vidya Bharati , Honorable Dr. Govind Sharmaji visited the program of Matree Sammelan held by Saraswati Vidya Niketan, Karimganj .

As per Indian philosophy & psychology, Dr. Govind Sharma said that a child is called the “Son of God” i.e. Devaputra. So, when parents deal with their children, they should be conscious. It should be kept in mind that when a mother engages herself in any problem related to her child be it anger, sorrow or anxiety, the reaction should not be harmful for the child. When a child is helpless in facing obstacles and not being able to tackle the situation, mother should be there to help her child. He said that environment of the home and school should be made such that it brings expected positive changes in the behavior of a child, because the “First teacher” of a child is his “Mother”.

More than 1500 mothers attended the meeting. The program was held with colourful performances and amongst them some mothers participated in the program too. The program was held at District Library Auditorium, Karimganj.

On the way Dr Sarma also visited the Maharshi Sandipan Vidyapith ,at Railway Town Badarpur and addressed the M.C member and teaching staff of the school . He also met with the members of the Executive Body of Shiksha Vikash parishad , Silchar and visited the multi purpose project site near to Silchar.
